CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1941, being of unsound and failing health and about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession of a crammed mind, well-trained memory, and almost superhuman understanding, and knowing that sooner or later all classes must graduate and putting full faith and implicit trust in the promises of the faculty that we will be a graduated class some time this May but still fully realizing and considering the uncertainties of the frail and transitory life of a senior, do make, publish and declare this instrument as and for our last will and testimony hereby revoking all former or other testamentary dispositions and making void all former wills or promises by us at any time here before May or mayhap carelessly spoken one to another as the thoughtless wish of an idle hour.

ITEM 1

We give and bequeath to superintendent, Mr. Overmeyer, our sincere affection, deepest reverence, hardiest gratitude and the whole unlimited wealth of our eternal memory.

ITEM 2

We give and bequeath to the faculty a sweet and unbroken succession of restful nights, also all the amazing knowledge and startling information that we have imparted to them in our examination papers.

ITEM 3

We give and bequeath to the junior class our well known ability.

ITEM 4

To the Sophomores we give and bequeath and to their heirs and assigns forever, all our stupidity and ignorance.

ITEM 5

To the Freshman class that is to be, we bequeath any over-looked cuds of gum. To the class of 1945 we bequeath our sympathy. While we are still here we feel for them even if we do not reach them. With hearts full of charity and trying to overlook their many faults, we leave to them our vacant chairs and seats, we intrust to them our empty lockers, and generously reserve for them our places at the drinking fountains.

ITEM 6

Individually we bequeath the following:

I, Paul Bowman, will my brisk walk to anyone who can keep up with it,

I, Don Bunge, will my "chawmin" smile and women killing ways to Wayne Kester,

I, Pearl Casselman, will by level head and good common sense to Emogean Goodwin,

I, Walter Campbell, will my tall, awkward appearance to Paul McConnell,

I, George Deetz, will my ability to pretend to have forgotten something I really never knew to LeRoy Hefty,

I, Donald Duesler, want Dan Gratz to take up my funny laugh,

I, Joan Farrington, will my bright ideas to Velma Freed,

I, Catherine Fretz, will my ability to come to school after the last bell and yet be on time, to those who come early,

I, Delphia Frick, will my ability to skip school to Luella Overholt,

I, Dale Gafken, will my beautiful Chevrolet to anyone who can afford to buy gasoline for it,

I, Jack Hire, leave nothing. (He's taking Marna with him),

I, Merideth Howard, will a bottle of bright red fingernail polish to Jean Thompson,

I, Marna Houser, turn my broom and dustpan over to anyone who wants a job,

I, Geraldine Husselman, will my cosmetics to next year's play casts, thinking it might save the school some money,

I, Lloyd Husselman, will my car to Nodine's Junk Yard,

I, Bill Jones, will my license to tease girls to Ellsworth Triplett,

I, Vernon Kohl, will my place on the Honor Roll to Art Fike,

I, June Krum, will, with deepest regret, my great fame and athletic ability to Beatrice Hull who is striving to be my equal,

I, Helen Kuckuck, will my blonde hair to Alice Bowman on the condition that she does not dye it black,

I, George Martin, will my boldness to Ward Sebert,

I, Bob Metcalf, will my beautiful blush to Harold Bowman,

I, Dorsey Roop, will my ability to get along with teachers to Rodney Wing,

I, Joan Roush, will my ability for getting acquainted with boys from "just anywhere" to Marjorie Nelson.

I, Dave Silberg, will my circumference to Dick Lowman,

I, Lavern Smith, leave Joan Farrington (but not for long at a time),

I, Gerald Steckley, will my love for all the teachers, especially Overmeyer, to anyone needing a good grade,

I, Donna Belle Thorne, will all my out-of-town boy friends to whoever wants a date,

I, George Wheeler, will my ability to sing in class to Wendell Broom,

I, Beulah Wing, will my avoirdupois to Joy Buss.

The above will being duly executed this year 1941, in the month of May, Waterloo, Indiana, DeKalb County. Drawn up by,

Catherine Fretz
Beulah Wing

SENIOR POEM

CLASS OF '41

Oh, we're the class of forty-one,
And many honors we have won.
We have studied four long years,
And now we have no more fears—
Unless for some unknown reason,
We are detained for another season.

Here are the members of our class,
Some are slow, but most are fast.
We are studious as a rule,
And seldom do we fool—
Except when teacher's away,
Then we have fun all the day.

Don Bunge's the president of our class,
With George Martin helping at the mast.
Marna Houser's the secretary fair,
And of the money D. B. Thorne takes care.
Why Deetz was chosen to write the history,
Seems to us to be a mystery.

There's Campbell and Jones, two fine pals,
And Helen and June, two fine gals.
Farrington from Smith we wouldn't dare part.
For fear of breaking someone's heart.
Hire and Silberg are two B. B. boys,
Who, when they score, bring us joys.

Casselman is a quiet little lass,
And Fretz is of the opposite class.
Roop and Wheeler, each a farmer lad,
And to the group we must add—
Metcalf, Gafken, and Husselman,
And Duesler, Steckley, and Bowman.

Roush and Wing, who love to design,
Those pretty pictures which are so fine.
Howard and Frick, two pretty girls,
Who are as busy as two little squirrels.
Last, but not least, are Gushwa and Jerry,
Who make this class so happy and merry.
